

The Daily Record

November 3, 2005

News Summary
By STAFF REPORTS

HUD taps Newport

Newport Partners LLC, of Davidsonville, a housing consulting firm, said it has been awarded four grants totaling $1.4 million by the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development, for work on projects ranging from construction of the first model of the Concept Home an affordable, adaptable model home to creating strategies that overcome barriers to affordable housing, along with information technology for builders and a technology transfer program.